ON WEEKDAY AFTERNOONS, IT'S ALL ABOUT THE KIDS.

Step into the club any weekday afternoon before 6, and you probably won't find anyone watching the financial news.

But you will find a bevy of energetic young tennis players — in clinics and lessons on the courts, and a few in the snack bar, refueling and even doing homework.

More than 250 children and teens call Frontenac their tennis home. On the court, it's all about the strokes — so they can develop the form now that will help prevent injuries as they build their games over the long term.

Of course, at Frontenac, it's about fun, too, with level-appropriate matches, weekend parties, novice events and citywide tournaments.
